It is important to note that elders were not born elders; they were kids like us and now have grown old. If today we respect them, our present and future (1) (entries/possibilities/generations) will carry those values and will learn to respect us as well when we grow old. Elders have a lot to share with us: their life experiences, their (2) (failures/happiness/income), their successes and many more. Thus we need to care for them because they (3) (eat /deserve/defend) to be cared for. No matter what we do in life, who we are, and where we live, we must love them as they love us unconditionally. They feel (4) (normal/distinguished/honored) when we (5) (forgive/appreciate/spare) and respect them. So it is our duty to help them when needed because they are not young enough to (6) (handle/think/regard) things on their own like before.
