Reading Comprehension

Read the passage and answer the following questions.

When asked about the people who taught us the most, who were for us through hardships, who laughed with us during the good times, who put up with us on our off days, most of us think immediately of our parents. It is true: our parents are the ones who have been with us through almost everything in our lives. Our mothers carry us for nine tiring month before we are born, and for at least eighteen years afterwards, to list a few things, take care of us, teach us, help us, and provide for us financially and academically. Without them, most of us would not be in the places we are today. Unfortunately, however, many people do not treat their parents in the manner they deserve. Teenagers fight relentlessly with their parents, often over extremely trivial topics. Other young people ignore their parents. They instead prefer to spend time with their friends or online. As we get older, we tend to forget that our parents are growing older as well, and they pushed aside to living on their own or in nursing homes while we start our own families. Not only is this disregard unfair to our parents, but it is also strictly forbidden in Islam. Respecting parents is one of the most significant aspects of Islam. God has commanded us to treat our parents with respect, no matter the situation we are in.

1) less than 18 years 2) exactly 18 years

3) about 9 months 4) at least 18 years

40. Which of the following could best replace the word "trivial" in paragraph 2?

1) unimportant 2) terrible 3) friendly 4) international

41. The passage is most likely to continue with ……. .

1) reasons why father and mother are responsible in modern society

2) an example of the Quran about the importance of patterns in Islam

3) a description of what young people will look like in the future

4) encouraging young people to earn more money
