A high percentage of the English language consists of idioms which a learner will have to learn in order to get complete fluency. However, good communication is not based on the quantity of idioms used, but on their appropriate usage. Students of English can easily make themselves understood using a minimal amount of idiomatic language, but some feel it is a necessity to learn them and then use them as often as possible to make a good impression and show how good their language is.

However, using them incorrectly can sound worse than not using them at all. Thankfully, there are many qualified teachers who can provide clear explanation and help with patience.

۵۲. Skim the 'reading'. Write the main idea.

۵۳. What is a good communication based on?

۵۴. What can qualified teachers provide us?

۵۵. What does 'them' in the line ۵ refer to?

۵۶. What does the word 'impression' mean?

a. variety b. effect c. addition d. custom

۵۷. We can understand from the passage that

a. you must know all the idioms in English to avoid misunderstanding.

b. the qualified teachers know all the idioms in English.

c. the more idioms the language has, the more fluent it is.

d. using idioms incorrectly may cause misunderstanding.

True OR False?

۵۸. It is almost impossible to communicate effectively without using idioms. a. true b. false

۵۹. Good communication largely depends on the number of idioms we use in our daily communications. a. true b. false

Passage 2: Read the passage and answer the questions.(1/5pts)

Teachers are an essential part of our lives. They teach us life lessons and help us discover who we are and how to succeed.

It's important to appreciate the teachers who are dedicated to their jobs. Even if you feel you have too much homework and too many exams, take a moment to think how important your teachers are.

Without them you wouldn't be where you are today.

Teaching requires a lot of time, preparation and effort. Outside of the class, teachers write lesson plans, create exams and grade tests. They also attend conference and training sessions to find tools and ways to help students succeed.

This article has shown you how your teachers are busy with a wide variety of responsibilities. The next time that you see your teachers, tell them you appreciate their help.

۶۰. What do teachers do to find tools and ways to help their students become successful?
